Residential on 0.14 Acres

Dundee, Boise, ID

Known to some as "The Museum", this artist-owned property sends it with rich character and charm. Bright hardwood floors throughout the home reflect natural light, complimented by many hand-carved decorative features on walls, banisters, trim pieces, shutters, etc. Originally constructed in the early 1930's, elements of period architecture are present, subtle yet resonating. An extensive collection of art once hung on these walls, not for commercial purposes, but more for display and storage of the owner-artist's works. Tall vaulted ceilings and a gallery of different shaped windows throughout the home, invites natural illumination. The layout is a meandering of rooms, both connected and secluded at the same time. The home is nestled on a large corner lot just three blocks from Boise's famed Manitou Park, surrounded by foliage and trees for privacy and nature-filled views from the many windows within. Walk across the small curved wooden bridge over the creek and pass through the metal gate to enter the property, taking in the subtle allure of something magical and enchanting. Short distances to shopping, restaurants, BSU, downtown Boise, the Boise airport, concert venues, parks, hospitals, the Boise river, simply an excellent central location!!! Enjoy one of the outdoor decks from the second story, or find yourself enjoying the large outdoor and very spacious yard.
