Star offers the perfect balance of peaceful country living and convenient city access. Enjoy spacious lots, quiet streets, and scenic views of farmland and foothills—all within an easy commute to Boise, Eagle, Meridian, and surrounding areas. Many residents are drawn to Star for its relaxed atmosphere, open space, and sense of community while still staying connected to major urban hubs. This charming single-level home sits on flat, fully usable land with 10 shares of water rights, animal rights, and a private road for added privacy. Perfectly set up for horses or livestock, the property includes multiple fenced pastures and a spacious horse barn. Take in sweeping views of Bogus Basin and the Star foothills while enjoying the quiet country setting—just minutes from town conveniences. Residents enjoy a well-rounded mix of local amenities, including a full-service Albertsons with pharmacy and fuel station. Along Highway 44, you’ll find restaurants, cafes, and local shops, with new additions like Dutch Bros, Jacksons, Mod Pizza, and Starbucks contributing to the town’s vibrant growth. Star continues to experience steady development—maintaining its small-town charm while providing the convenience and stability of a thriving community. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity!
