Warm Springs Me, Boise, ID

This updated mid-century home honors its heritage while embracing the ease of modern living. Elevated above its neighbors and surrounded by mature landscaping, the home feels like a modern treehouse overlooking the city. Remodeled kitchen and baths create a fresh aesthetic, while original wood and stone accents add warmth and authenticity. A cantilevered deck wraps around the home, inviting you to take in sweeping views of city, greenery and sky. Clean lines, natural materials, and a modern wire railing echo the home's mid-century roots—an ethos of simplicity, function, and connection to nature. Inside, refinished hardwood floors and crisp white paint create bright, open living. The remodeled kitchen features warm wood cabinetry, quartz counters, stainless steel appliances, and stacked tile—a nod to timeless design. The living area centers around a stacked stone fireplace framed by corner windows. Two main-level bedrooms enjoy a beautifully updated bath where the original turquoise tub and toilet have been preserved, now paired with new terrazzo-style tile, sleek vanity, and mid-mod flair. The walk-out lower level provides bonus room, full bath, and 2 additional bedrooms. Outside, the tiered yard unfolds like a secret garden with stone paths, native boulders, groves of mature trees, and tucked-away spaces for gathering, gardening, or peaceful retreat.
